

Re: 02-278, The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. We have enjoyed evenings with no telemarketing calls for the first time in years. The law has given us our privacy and peaceful surroundings again. Do not change it to anything less effective. Janet Feters